Re: Letter of Reference for Aimee Elizabeth

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been acquainted with Aimee Elizabeth for 15 years. When I was ready to start my own business in January of 2005, I got in touch with Aimee so that she could give me the training and expertise I knew I would need in order to be a success. I saw Aimee owning her own businesses and retiring early, so I knew she had the know-how I needed. Aimee's training and continuous business consulting showed me how to successfully grow my own business, Candy Cane Sign Service, which I have been operating for the past 7 years. Even in a recession, Aimee's business principles have allowed me to grow my business and be profitable.

I would highly recommend Aimee's book "Poverty Sucks! How to Become a Self-Made Millionaire" as well as her class, training and business consulting. She is an expert in her field. I know I would not be the success I am today were it not for Aimee's guidance.

Should you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

John Webb, Owner
