Letter of Recommendation for Aimee Elizabeth

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write this recommendation of Aimee Elizabeth who has applied for a teaching position.

I have known Aimee for over 7 years and have come to know her as an intelligent, level headed, and caring person.

My husband and I have recently ventured into a new business of real estate investments. In doing so, we decided to seek out Aimee's advice on how to get started. Over the years, Aimee and I have shared many conversations on investments and I felt very secure in asking her thoughts of starting a new business in such trying economic times. She was able to help me layout a business plan before taking the "plunge" and was very thorough in making sure I was aware of ALL aspects with this type of investing.

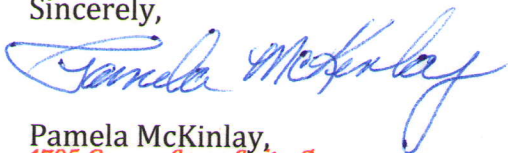

So far, we have been very successful in our venture. I wouldn't have had the guts to go forward without Aimee's input. I feel our success has been due to the time and effort she took to lead us in the right direction.

I have read her book "Poverty Sucks! How to Become a Self-Made Millionaire" and have given it to many people. This book offers sound advice to those who have no idea on what to do to get ahead. I truly believe it gives people hope (no matter where they are in life) to start their own business and truly succeed.

Aimee inspires people, gives confidence, and I can see no greater assets in a teacher than somebody who not only has incredible success and experience, but also inspires someone to achieve the same.

I heartily recommend Aimee Elizabeth to you as she would be a true inspiration to your students.

Sincerely,

Pamela McKinlay,
